MINERS' LEADERS ACCEPT SETTLEMENT PLAN NEARLY 3,000 WOMEN ARE REGISTERED IN MORGAN COUNTY

INDUSTRIAL SKY IS CLEARING RAPIDLY; STRIKE OF RAILWAY MEN IS PREVENTED

Colliery Owners Reported to Have Agreed to Government Proposals.

MEETING OF DELEGATES IS CALLED AT ONCE

Officials of Federation Recommend That Walkout Come to an End.

(International News Service) LONDON, Oct. 27.—The industrial sky of Great Britain cleared rapidly today. Leaders of the Federation of Miners announced they had accepted the government's plan for a settlement of the coal strike. A meeting of the miners' delegates was summoned and officials of the Federation said they would recommend that the national strike be ended. It was stated by the Central News that the colliery owners also had accepted the government's terms.

Settlement of the coal strike makes it virtually certain that there will be no strike by the railway men or the transport workers.

Representatives of the strikers said it was not likely that work could be resumed throughout the coal fields within a week. The government's plan for settlement of the strike grants a wage increase to the men of two shillings (normally 48 cents) per shift on condition that there be an increased production. The government has proposed the creation of a national board to regulate wages in the future based on the total revenue of the coal industry.

PRESIDENT'S VOICE RAISED IN BEHALF OF NATION LEAGUE

(International News Service) WASHINGTON, Oct. 27.—"The whole future moral force of right in the world depends upon the United States, rather than upon any other nation and it would be pitiful, indeed, if, after so many great people have entered the great league, we should hold it aloof," declared President Wilson today in an address to a group of proponents of the league of nations at the White House.

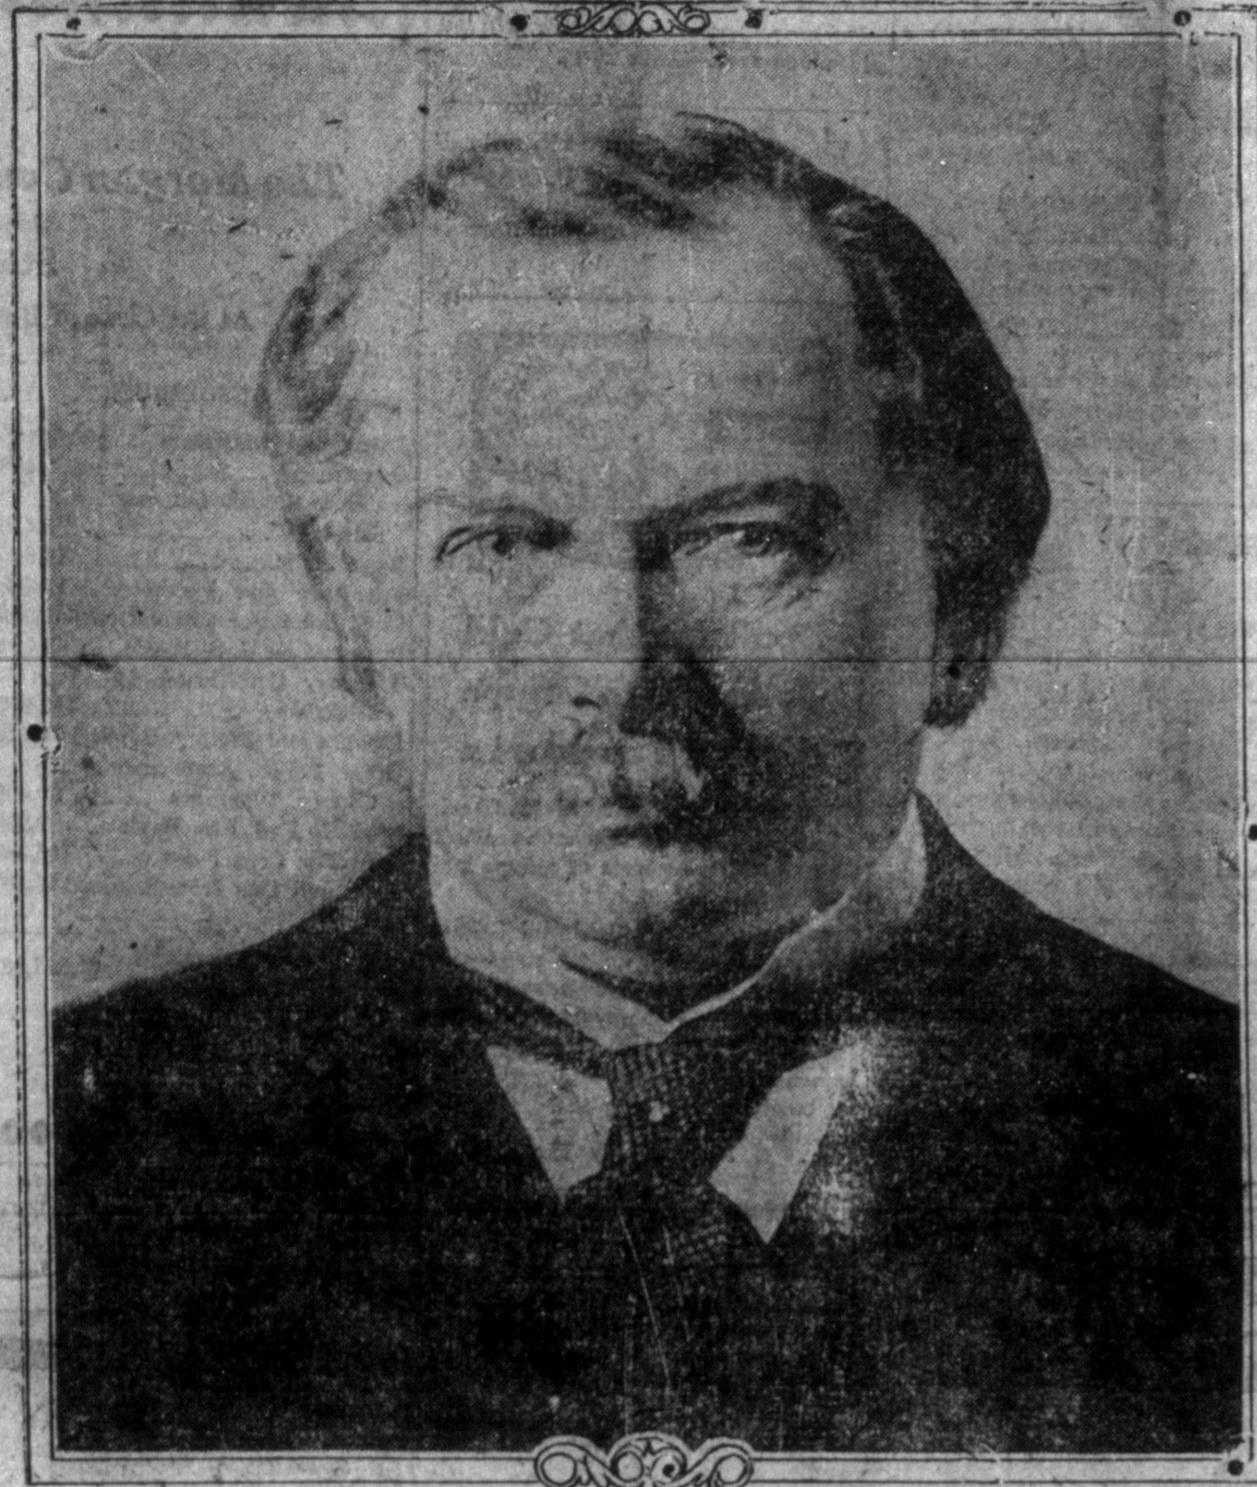

Although the president delivered the address to a small delegation at the White House, it was addressed to "My Fellow Countrymen".

"I suggest that the candidacy of every candidate for whatever office be tested by this question. 'Shall, or shall we not redeem the great moral obligations of the United States?'"

The president declared "the so-called Americanism, which we hear so much prating about now is spurious and invented for party purposes only. No one who opposes ratification of the treaty of Versailles and the adoption of the covenant of London has proposed any other adequate means of bringing about settled peace. There is no other available, or possible means and this means is ready at hand. They have, on the contrary, tried to persuade you that every pledge contained in Article Ten, which is the essential pledge of the whole plan of security, is, itself, a threat of war."

President Wilson received a delegation of Republicans and Independents, headed by Hamilton Holt, of New York, who pledged their support to the league of nations. Holt, in addressing the president, stated that he felt sure that there were many Republicans and Independents who were opposed to the league being made a party issue and that they would support the league.

ENGLISH PREMIER, TO WHOSE EFFORTS COAL
SETTLEMENT IS VERY LARGE DUE, REPORT

PREMIER LLOYD GEORGE

The Welsh diplomat has been the storm center of the conferences on the British coal strike for many days. Representatives of the Federation of Miners and the colliery owners met in the official residence of Mr. Lloyd George and there it was that the details of the reported agreement between the government and miners were worked out.

M'SWINEY'S DEATH CAUSED BY HEART FAILURE-CORONER

(International News Service)

LONDON, Oct. 27.—A verdict that Terrence McSwiney, late Lord Mayor of Cork, died of heart failure, was returned by a coroner's jury in Brixton jail this afternoon. The verdict did not mention "suicide".

The coroner refused permission to ship the body to Ireland for burial on the grounds that it was outside his jurisdiction. Members of the McSwiney family, immediately appealed to the home office for lifting of the embargo against removal of the body from England.

WEIGHED BUT 75

(International News Service)

LONDON, Oct. 27.—Terrence McSwiney weighed only 75 pounds when he died in Brixton jail, after a hunger strike of nearly 74 days, it was learned today.

He weighed 155 pounds when he began his fast.

RIOTING BEGINS

BELFAST, Ireland, Oct. 27.—Rioting broke out at St. Mathew's chapel, today. Troops were rushed to the scene in an armored car and dispersed the rioters.

INFANT DIES

Funeral services will be held this afternoon at 3:30 o'clock from the Methodist church, at Austinville, for little Estell Spearman, 2 months old daughter of Rev. and Mrs. Spearman, who died yesterday. Service will be conducted by Rev. J. W. Cull and interment will be made here.

WEATHER

Fair and cooler tonight. Light frost.

STATE FIELD TRIALS WILL BE HELD HERE IN THE NEAR FUTURE

The annual meet of the Alabama Field Trials club will be held here, probably early in January and already plans are being made for the most successful one in the history of the club.

The annual meeting brings together a number of the best dogs in the South and the competition is keen. Cups are awarded the winners in the all-age, the derby and the free-for-all.

TOTAL KILLED IN HAITI IS REDUCED

(International News Service)

WASHINGTON, Oct. 27.—The number of Haitians killed by American marines which had been previously announced as 3,250, was today reduced to 2,250 by Brigadier General Barnett, former commander of the United States marine corps, when he took the stand before the naval court of inquiry, investigating alleged indiscriminate killing of Haitians by marines.

A mistake by the historical section of the marine corps in the computation of casualties had caused the number to be fixed at 3,250, instead of the correct number, 2,250, General Barnett said.

Fair and cooler tonight. Light frost.

SHRINERS EXPECT GREAT TIME WHEN VISIT THE VALLEY

Members of the Shrine club of this section are looking forward with much pleasure to the ceremonial of

Zamoa Temple, Ancient Arabic Order Nobles of the Mystic Shrine, which will be held in Sheffield on November

10. En route to the Tri Cities, the delegation of Birmingham and Cullman Shriners will stop off here for a parade and lunch.

The official divan, led by Potentate M. O. Hubbard, the glad-hand committee, the patrol, the chanters, the Shrine band and a number of nobles, will set out from Birmingham at 7 a. m. that day and arrive at Cullman at 8:30 o'clock, an hour to be spent there when a concert and drill will be put on. Arriving at 10:30, a parade in Albany and Decatur will be staged and then Tuscaloosa will be reached by 1:30 p. m. where the patrol will put on an exhibition drill, the band will give a concert and the chanters will render a program. From 2:10 to 2:40 the patrol will drill, the band and chanters will be heard. From 3:30 to 5 p. m. the delegation will spend in Florence and 5:30 the park will be reached and big barbecue spread. The business session and ceremonial session will follow. From Sheffield to Birmingham will be made by 5 a. m. and then down to Montgomery will be the program, one of the greatest ceremonial events ever pulled off there being in order.

Because of the limitations of room in the Tri-Cities, it is expected that the bulk of the Shriners will come from this territory, starting at Cullman and as the way up.

HEALTH CRUSADE IS DISCUSSED AT MEET HERE; TUBERCULOSIS WILL BE ATTACKED

Officials of State Organization Lay Plan of Campaign Before Visitors.

COOPERATION PLEDGED FOR VALLEY COUNTIES

Morgan, Limestone and Madison Will be Organized at Early Date.

At a luncheon held at the Lyons Hotel yesterday considerable interest was manifested in the organization of a fight against the Great White Plague in North Alabama. Geo. W. Peck, Field Secretary of the Alabama Tuberculosis Association, presided at the conference.

After explaining to the assembly that the purpose of the meeting was to discuss the organization of a County Tuberculosis Association in Morgan and Limestone counties, Miss McWhorter, Director of the Modern Health Crusade, was introduced. In a very forcible manner Miss McWhorter presented the Modern Health Crusade as it is being carried out in the schools of Alabama, emphasizing the necessity of full cooperation of parent, teacher and child. After her speech Miss McWhorter visited the Decatur School, the Albany High School, and a Club meeting at the home of Mrs. Carl Patterson, where she made interesting talks on the Health Crusaders. Then Mr. Cullen outlined a series of programs that might be undertaken by any County Tuberculosis Association, dividing them according to the amount of money available for use. The first amount was $500, the smallest amount that could be used to advantage. Mr. Cullen explained that this could be used in making a tuberculosis survey and distributing literature.

If $1500 was available, Mr. Cullen explained that a tuberculosis clinic could be organized, and with $2500, a full time tuberculosis nurse, as well as a part time traveling clinic could be had, and if $5000 was available, one or more nurses could be had, and a part or full time clinician. Mr. Cullen explained that the ultimate for which an association could strive, would be the erection and maintenance of a County or District Sanitorium for the treatment of tuberculosis.

Tells of Work

Dr. Carl Grote, County Health Officer of Madison County, was then asked to make a few remarks concerning the anti-tuberculosis work as it is carried on in that County. Dr. Grote said that the work of the Shriners will be carried on in the community, and that the Shrine club will be a great help in this work.

HAVE OWNERS LOST LOVE FOR POOR OL' FIDO?

Have the dog owners of Morgan County ceased to care for Fido? Officials today were puzzled over this question as a result of the heavy stamp in the payment of dog licenses this year.

Last season between 3,000 and 3,500 tags were bought by dog owners of Morgan, Circuit Court Clerk Draper stated this morning, but this year only 260 tags have been obtained for the county canines.

The attempt to amend the dog law by the recent legislature was believed by many to be the cause of the stamp. The law, however, still requires dogs to be tagged. Tags are obtained upon the payment of the dog license to the circuit court clerk.

FUNERAL SERVICES THURSDAY FOR LATE JEFFERSON DAVIS

Funeral services will be held Thursday morning at 10 o'clock for Jefferson S. Davis, aged 59 years, one of Morgan County's best known citizens, who was instantly killed Tuesday afternoon when his automobile was struck by a fast passenger train at Southern Railway crossing at Trinity, six miles from here.

Services will be conducted from the family residence, Forest Home, near Trinity, by Rev. W. E. Morris, presiding elder of the Decatur church. Interment will be made in Fennell cemetery on Trinity mountain.

Mr. Davis was a life-long resident of Morgan County, having been born and reared in the Trinity neighborhood. He was always actively identified with all progressive movements looking to the upbuilding of his community. He was an active worker also in the Methodist church, of which he had been a member practically all of his life. He was a member of the Masonic order.

He is survived by his wife, Mrs. Annie M. Davis; four daughters, Mrs. E. Steed, Misses Theo, Cynica and Mary King Davis; his father, Rev. A. L. Davis and one sister, Mrs. W. G. Henry. The latter resides in Huntsville.

Pallbearers will be: Active—Thomas H. Gunn, Henry T. Lile, Dawson Lile, Hartwell Davis, Rayburn Neville, Fred F. Tidwell. Honorary—A. A. Bloodworth, O. E. Young, John Lile, James Davis, Dr. Will Emens, J. M. Minor.

The tragic death of Mr. Davis yesterday afternoon cast a shadow of gloom over the Twin Cities when news of the accident was received here.

BOOKS ARE CLOSED AND REGISTRATION BOARD BEGINS TASK OF CHECKING TOTAL

Small Percentage of Male Voters Register in the Qualification Period.

MANY WOMEN PAYING THEIR POLL TAX NOW

New Epoch is ushered in when Women Become Full-Fledged Citizens.

With an unofficial total of 2985 citizens registered in Morgan County during the qualification period which came to an end Tuesday night, the registration board today was busily engaged in the gigantic task of checking all of the figures and making up their final and official tabulation. The board retired to its office early this morning to complete its work and add the names of some 3,000 new voters to the poll lists of Morgan County.

The books were closed just after dark yesterday immediately after 326 citizens had taken advantage of the final day to qualify themselves to cast their ballots in the November election. While the board today was unable to give official figures on the number of men registered, practically the entire unofficial total of registrants was composed of women. Few men registered in any of the precincts.

PAY POLL TAXES

The tax officials now are shouldering the burden left by the heavy registration. Although the women are not required to pay polls in order to vote in November, payment of their poll tax is required in order for them to vote next year.

Already two hundred and fifty Morgan County women have paid their poll tax, it was announced today by officials at the county tax office. Only one hundred men have paid this year, but many of the payments were for periods of several years. The registration of women has proved a stimulant to the male voters. In several instances the husband has been required to pay back poll in order to match his wife's vote.

GREATEST REGISTRATION

In addition to being the heaviest registration in any similar period in the history of Morgan County, the registration of women, for the first time, opened a new era in the development of the county. November 2 will be the first election of any character, in which the women have cast their ballots.

By far the heaviest registration was at the courthouse here. Not all of the registrants here, however, reside in the Twin Cities. Nearly every day the books were open here, trucks brought in contingents from nearby precincts.

Official totals on the registration by precincts follow:

Falkville	105
Hartselle	600
Somerville	40
Danville	85
Courthouse	2155
Total	2985

BETTING ODDS ARE ALMOST EVEN HERE

There is comparatively little betting in the Twin Cities on the outcome of the Cox-Harding race, it was stated here today, although the odds are almost even. In fact, it is stated, that very few Harding pickers are offering any odds. It was reported today that a prominent Republican would offer 5 to 3 that Harding is the winner. The recent heavy gains declared to have been made by the Democrats in the east and middle west has restored the confidence of the followers of the Ohio governor.

DOCTORS USE CALOTABS FOR COLDS AND FLU

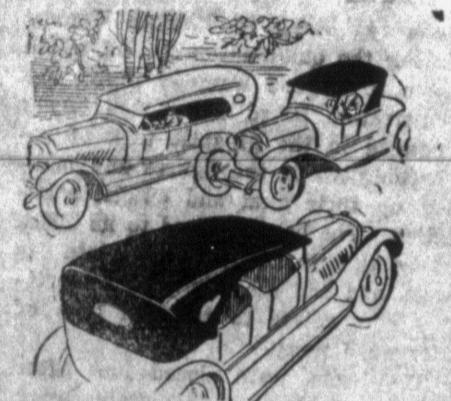

Influenza and Grippe, Like Ordinary Colds, Require Calotabs, the Purified and Refined Calomel Tablets That Are Nauseless, Safe and Sure

Doctors are warning the public that simple colds and mild cases of influenza often lead to pneumonia and other serious complications. They say that every cold should receive immediate attention and that the first step in the treatment is to make sure that the liver is active. For this purpose Calotabs, the perfected, nauseless calomel tablets are the surest, best and most agreeable laxative.

One Calotab at bed time with a swallow of water—that's all, no salts, no nausea, and no upsetting of the digestion and appetite. Next morning your cold has vanished, your liver is active, your system is purified and refreshed and you are feeling fine with a hearty appetite for breakfast. Eat what you please,—no danger.

For your protection, Calotabs are sold only in original sealed packages, price thirty-five cents. All druggists recommend and guarantee Calotabs and are authorized to refund the price if you are not delighted with them. (Advt.)

FEELING WELL

"I am feeling much better," writes H. R. Speake, one of the popular members of the firm of Speake, Echoes and Speake, who is at Hot Springs, Ark., for his health. "I am very much improved and hope to be home about November 1."

SOME GAME

"While the Auburn-Vandy game at Birmingham Saturday was so one-sided it detracted from the interest, still there were many bright features," said Charles Carr. "The work of Big Warren, Auburn lineman, who kicked seven goals was a pleasure to watch. The big fellow just ambled up to the ball, gave it a kick, apparently without effort, and through the goal posts it sailed."

TALKS OF TEXAS

"I am just back from the Texas state fair at Dallas," said W. T. Lewis. I got there on a Sunday morning, and went out the fair grounds. They estimated the daily attendance at the fair at over 200,000 per day. I never saw the like of people. I saw one Jersey cow, 2 years old sell for $75 and another Jersey, 4 years old, for $480.

DAILY POPULAR

"The Daily must be popular among its readers in Morgan County," said S. H. Bentley, factory expert, who was here this week demonstrating Estate Stoves. "Knowing we had an ad in that issue, the other day I tried to get a Daily in Hartselle. While the paper was delivered by carrier there and a number of people were subscribers, I was unable to obtain a copy. None of the subscribers could let me have theirs and I could not obtain one on sale. The supply was gone."

Kansas' Wheat Bins Depleted

TOPEKA, Kan., Oct. 27.—Wheat bins in the grain elevators of Kansas continue depleted today as further effects of the "wheat strike" by farmers became apparent. With the movement of wheat to the elevators shut off at its source three weeks ago, supplies on hands in the huge grainries have dwindled to nothing and the embargo has at last become serious.

DEMAND RENEWED

WASHINGTON, Oct. 27.—Lawrence Todd, representative of the Federated Press, today renewed his demand upon Secretary of State Colby for an investigation of the deportation of E. J. Costello, managing editor of the Federated Press, from England.

SENATORIAL FIGHTS OF MUCH INTEREST
IN MANY DISTRICTS*Notice of Road
Bond Election

(International News Service.) WASHINGTON, Oct. 27—In thirty-three of the States elections will be held for United States Senator on November 2. Thirty-four United States Senators are to be chosen, and in several of the States lively Senatorial campaigns have been waged, with the League of Nations the paramount issue.

In the Senatorial elections in many of the Southern States the nomination of the Democratic candidate is equivalent to election. Among these States are Alabama (two), Arkansas, Louisiana, South Carolina, Virginia.

Eleven States from which Democrats are likely to return Senators are Alabama (two), Arkansas, Florida, Louisiana, Georgia (regarding Tom Watson as anti-Republican though anti-League), Florida, North Carolina, South Carolina, Oklahoma, Oregon and Virginia.

Republicans face Senatorial contests in California, Colorado, Connecticut, Idaho, Illinois, Indiana, Iowa, Kentucky, Maryland, Missouri, New Hampshire, New York, North Dakota, Ohio, Utah and Wisconsin, with good chances of electing Senators from all in the event of a Harding landslide.

Arizona is expected to re-elect Senator Mark Smith (D).

Kansas is regarded as certain to return Senator Curtis (R.)

Nevado is doubtful ground—probably will return Senator Henderson (D).

Oklahoma almost certain to elect Scott Ferris (D.) who defeated Senator Gore, anti-Wilson Democrat, for nomination.

Pennsylvania sure to return Penrose (R.)

South Dakota likely to elect Norbeck (R.)

Washington regarded as certain to re-elect Jones (R.).

There are ninety-six members of the Senate. Were it not for two seats made vacant by deaths (Senator Martin, of Virginia, and Senator Bankhead, of Alabama) thirty-two instead of thirty-four, or one-third of the Senate membership, as provided by the election laws, would come up for election.

Of the thirty-four seats to be filled in the Senate nineteen are now held by Democrats and fifteen by Republicans. The Republicans now control the Senate by 49 to 47 seats—one of the 49 is held by Senator Newberry, of Michigan, whose case is still before the United States Supreme Court—so the Republican margin is really but one, counting Harding, which Senator Borah, always very independent, may be said to represent, so a tie really exists at present between the Democrats and Republicans.

Of the nineteen seats the Democrats are certain to hold two from Alabama, one from Arkansas, one from Florida, one from Louisiana, one from North Carolina, one from South Carolina, one from Virginia—eight. Of the fifteen seats the Republicans are certain to hold one from Kansas, one from Pennsylvania, one from Vermont, one from Washington—four. Of the seats likely to go to the Republicans are Colorado, Idaho, Illinois, Indiana, Iowa, New Hampshire, Connecticut, New York, Ohio, Utah, South Dakota and Wisconsin—twelve. Doubtful States where Republicans have good chances of winning are California, Maryland and Missouri—three. Doubtful States where Democrats have chances of winning are Arizona, Kentucky, Nevada, Oklahoma and Oregon—four.

Georgia—Sure to elect Tom Watson, whom neither Democrats nor Republicans can claim.

Alabama—Oscar Underwood (D.), re-election for second term; Thomas Heflin (D.) for term expiring March 3, 1925, succeeding Senator Braxton Bragg Comer, who was appointed to fill the vacancy caused by the death of Senator John Hollis Bankhead. Nomination of Underwood and Heflin at Alabama primaries equivalent to election. Underwood minority leader of the Senate.

Arkansas—T. H. Caraway (D.), who defeated Senator William F. Kirby, a candidate for re-election at the Arkansas primaries. Caraway's nomination equivalent to election.

Arizona—Ralph H. Cameron (R.)

Mark Smith (D.) present incumbent.

California—Samuel Shortridge (R.)

THE GOOD ROAD BOND ISSUE

Citizens of Morgan county will have an unusual opportunity on November 2, when they cast four separate ballots in the election that date. Of great deal more importance, however, than the mere fact that Tuesday's election breaks the local record for number of ballots, is the decision our citizenship will make on the proposed $400,000 good roads bond issue.

It is deplorable, but a fact nevertheless, that our roads are very poor. In our larger communities we often speak of building up closer trade connections with our rural sections, but in the opinion of The Daily, the producer on the farm does exceedingly well to get to town more than once or twice a year. In the winter months, our roads are almost impassable. When the fall season opens early, the producer is laboring under a decided handicap when he attempts to bring late farm products to the markets. Our roads, poor in summer, get worse in the fall and still worse in the winter. Instead of being able to drive to town in a couple of hours, the farmer is required to give a day or so to the trip. It is a hardship on him which only the construction of good roads can overcome.

It is not only the duty of the larger communities to give their wholehearted support to the bond issue, but from a standpoint of civic enterprise it is good business for them to do so.

The farmers of Morgan County, who, perhaps, will receive the greatest blessing from the completion of the proposed good roads system in this county, are good roads enthusiasts. Frankly, in the opinion of The Daily, there is but one danger that the bond issue will be defeated. That danger is that the public generally may not understand the measure.

Bond issues have been authorized in more than one county, and, afterwards, the proceeds spent to little advantage. To prevent a similar occurrence in Morgan County, the official call for the election sets forth the roads which are to be constructed. Those roads are:

"A" Extend the Falkville west pike from McKendree church west to the Danville and Basham's Gap road, thence south along said last named road toward Basham's Gap. The total distance of this extension is estimated to be six miles.

"B" The Decatur and Danville Road, approximately seventeen miles.

"C" Extend the Falkville east pike by way of Gandy's Cove through Lawrence Cove Beat to intersect the Florette and Ryan's Cross Roads, road at or near the old Tingle place, estimated to be eleven miles.

"D" From Eva north to intersect the road last above named, estimated to be one and one half miles.

"E" Extend the Decatur and Somerville pike in a south-easterly direction to Somerville, estimated to be five miles.

"F" From Somerville in a southerly direction to intersect the Hartselle and Valhermosa Road, estimated to be one and one half miles.

"G" From Florette to Ryan's Cross Roads, estimated to be 10 miles.

"H" Extend the Hartselle and Valhermosa pike in a north easterly direction from the present eastern terminus of that pike to Valhermosa Springs, estimated to be eight miles.

"I" From Flint in a south westerly direction to intersect the Decatur and Danville Road, estimated to be two miles.

It is required by the call for the bond issue election that the funds from the bonds be proportioned among the above named highways. The Albany chamber of commerce has pledged itself to see that the spirit and letter of the call is carried out in detail and that the funds are proportioned, in accordance with the intent of those who desire to see a complete chain of good roads built through EVERY section of Morgan County.

There will be nothing but fair treatment in the distribution of funds. The law requires it and that positive personal assurance has been given by the chamber of commerce. Voters are asked to decide the fate of the bond issue on the merits of the measure.

In an official statement from Probate Judge L. P. Troup today, the further assurance is given that there can be no increase in taxation because of the passage of the bond issue. Taxation is fixed by constitutional provision. Beyond the given limit, no county, by vote, or otherwise, can go. Morgan County now has reached her limit. The basis of taxation cannot be increased.

The interest on the bonds will be met from revenue which will be available each year from the present income of the county.

Authorization of the bond issue will mean the early completion of a highway system which will place every farm in the county not more than two miles from an improved road. That chain will be constructed without increase of taxation. Morgan County surely will not turn down such an advantageous opportunity.

THE LEAGUE BECOMING MORE

POPULAR EACH DAY

The wisdom of President Wilson in seeking early and late to make the league of nations covenant the paramount issue of this campaign, is becoming more and more evident as election day draws near. One of the surprises of the last few days has been the attitude of the East toward the league. It had been believed by political writers that the West was more determined to uphold the league than any other section excepting the Southern states, but the mighty wave of league sentiment that is sweeping through New York state, and through Ohio indicate that if any thing, down East is stronger for the covenant, than out West.

Not the least considerable of the recent developments favoring an agreement against all war, was the action of Mrs. Catt, the recognized leader of the women voters of the nation. The women are more than apt to follow their leader in such large numbers as to swing all the doubtful states into the Democratic column. If there was ever a serious mistake in the Democratic policy, it has been the fact that not until recent days has the league and that alone, been put forth as the real issue, the "solemn referendum." It is to be regretted that Chairman White should have ever made the statement accredited to him in the opening of the campaign, when he undertook in Gov. Cox's name to renounce the league as of supreme importance in the campaign. As it has been found that Mr. Wilson is much stronger with the rank and file, than the politicians wished to admit, so also it has been demonstrated that the league is bigger and more popular than any party or any set of candidates.

So strongly have the people responded to the idealism of Mr. Wilson as expressed in the great covenant, that even as reactionary a newspaper as the Chicago Tribune, of un-happy memory, has come out with strong warning to the Republican party not to underestimate the power of Mr. Wilson and his idealism on the Pacific coast and in the Rocky Mountain states.

It speaks well for the political wisdom of Governor Cox, that he is now bending every energy to get the people to see the real meaning of the league of nations, and to realize that in no wise does it supersede the American constitution or in any way interfere with the best American traditions.

All are agreed that if any provision of the League tends to entangle our nation with those beyond the seas, it is article ten of the covenant. The article is short and can be read to advantage. It will be noted that according to article ten, the league council can only "advise" what means shall be used to prevent military aggression. The following is the complete text of the much discussed article ten:

The members of the league undertake to respect and preserve as against external aggression the territorial integrity and existing political independence of all members of the league. In case of any such aggression the council shall advise upon the means by which this obligation shall be fulfilled.

The drop in cabbage should hit the cigar stand shortly.

The government is reported to have had 2,000,000 hand cuffs for war purposes. The question naturally arises: Were they all for captured German prisoners?

Cicotte would have been alright if he had let well enough alone, and remained only a "curve" pitcher.

Most of the people who are howling against the bosses and the rich have never had the refusal of wealth or been offered a "bossship."

If shoe leather will only fall a bit, it will be cheaper to walk than to buy gasoline.

Wet cellars were never popular until prohibition went into effect.

If many pretty good people would only stop pretending, they would have energy enough left to really amount to something.

When disarmament begins in the home, then the nation can scrap its battle ships and disband its army.

The dollar, as have some people, may yet become so valuable that we will be ashamed of the slighting things we have said about it.

An explanation for the shortage in print paper that is meeting with great favor, states: "The billions of whiskey prescription blanks being used is the cause of it all."

What the country is coming to, will be decided rightfully when it "comes to."

A 98 year old man recently ventured to fly in an airplane. In any event he had little time to lose.

MILLERAND, MAN
OF REAL ACTION

PRESIDENT FRANCE TIRELESS
WORKER SPENDS HOURS
AT DESK

By Newton C. Parke,
International News Service Staff
Correspondent

PARIS, Oct. 27—One of the hardest workers in the world had to join the Saturday half holiday crowd when Alexander Millerand retired as Prime Minister of France to become its President.

President Millerand's physicians pointed out that he could not risk his health, as ex-President Deschanel had done, by continuing to strain himself. After some insistence, the new President, who as Premier worked from 8 a. m. to 8 p. m. six and sometimes seven days a week, agreed to rest on Saturday afternoon. Most of the important Cabinet Ministers are following his example and closing their offices at noon.

The new President had to make another concession in taking over his new job. For years it had been his custom to take nothing at noon but a cup of tea. Now he has let himself in for a regular round of many-coursed luncheons at the Elysee Palace.

Since his election he has had one steady round of visitors. No one of them remained more than fifteen minutes, excepting in a very few rare instances. President Millerand believes that fifteen minutes is enough to cover any man's tale of woe. He makes decisions quickly, carries nothing over until the next day, and if he wants a record of an interview with a visitor makes it himself on a pad.

of notepaper.

The new President takes few motor rides. He has a large limousine at his disposal, but he loves to walk, tramped or along the River Seine. At the avl. used it.

Another Royal Suggestion

DOUGHNUTS and CRULLERS

From the New ROYAL COOK BOOK

DOUGHNUTS made
D the doughboy happy
during the war and no wonder. There is nothing more wholesome and delightful than doughnuts or crullers rightly made. Their rich, golden color and appetizing aroma will create an appetite quicker than anything else in the world.

Here are the famous doughnut and cruller recipes from the New Royal Cook Book.

Doughnuts

2 tablespoons shortening
6 tablespoons milk
2 cups flour
2 teaspoons Royal Baking Powder

Beat eggs until very light; add sugar, salt, nutmeg and melted shortening; add milk and flour and baking powder which have been sifted together; mix well. Drop by teaspoons into deep hot fat and fry until brown. Drain well on unglazed paper and sprinkle lightly with powdered sugar.

Crullers

4 tablespoons shortening
1 cup sugar
2 eggs
3 cups flour
1 teaspoon cinnamon
1/2 teaspoon salt
3 teaspoons Royal Baking Powder

Cream shortening; add sugar gradually and beaten eggs; sift together flour, cinnamon, salt and baking powder; add one-half and mix well; add milk and remainder of dry ingredients to make soft dough. Roll out on floured board to about 1/4 inch thick; cut out. Fry in deep fat hot enough to brown a piece of bread in 60 seconds. Drain on unglazed paper and sprinkle with powdered sugar.

Afternoon Tea Doughnuts

EXAGGERATION IN ADVERTISING

When a Merchant advertises a line of Merchandise at 50% off he insults your intelligence

For 50% off is equivalent to 100% on. They are either over charging you in the price named at first or trying to mislead you with exaggerated values. No legitimate business can make any such assertion and live up to it. The American Woolen Mills have reduced Suiting and Dress Woolens 20% to 25%. No reductions have been made in the wages of the labor, one of the most important items in the cost of Suits and Dresses. Still some who are trying to mislead you will advertise 50% off. No matter what per cent others offer you, compare our merchandise with theirs, you will find in ours a greater value Dollar for Dollar. Being a member of a chain of stores gives us an advantage over others on account of being able to purchase in large quantities. We want your patronage on a legitimate basis—and are striving to give you the best values obtainable for the amount of money expended. Come in, compare our vast stock with others. We assure you that it is a pleasure to show you. No obligation to buy. No sale is complete at this store until you are satisfied.

New Suits, Dresses and Coats Arrive in Big Assortment

Purchased by our New York buyer at a big reduction under prices earlier in the season. The cancellation of orders by merchants in districts where business is not so good, forces manufacturers to dispose of a big surplus of Suits, Coats and Dresses. This chain of stores having anticipated a reduction in merchandise bought very light early in the season, and we were in position to handle a big quantity. This enabled our buyer to secure values way above ordinary. These great values we are going to pass along to you.

Charming Indeed! These New Suits, Coats and Dresses

Values that look $10.00 to $25.00 greater than our original prices. Every one in stock re-marked at Reduction of 20%. None reserved.

Bridge Elect Honoree

Mrs. Harry Collier entertained delightfully last evening at the home of Mrs. M. L. Collier at a linen shower, given in honor of Miss Norene Collier, a bride-elect of this week.

The home was very pretty with its decorations of fall flowers.

Music and contests were the feature of the evening. Many were told of their future as they fished from a pond presided over by a witch.

The popularity of the honoree was attested by the beautiful gifts given to her by the host of friends.

After the presentation of gifts all were invited to the dining room where at a table centered with a miniature bride, dainty ices were served. Miss Collier was very charming in a gown of flesh georgette. Her flowers were pink and white carnations. Mrs. Harry Collier's gown was white georgette.

One thing a man has to learn in public office," he said, "is that criticism is inevitable. The man who lets his judgment be deflected from day by day what the people think or say, will go on the rocks as sure as shooting."

"A man must trust his own judgment and conscience, and go ahead. Some day, if he has been true, the facts will come to light and justify him."

He laughed.

"One thing a man has to learn in public office," he said, "is that criticism is inevitable. The man who lets his judgment be deflected from day by day what the people think or say, will go on the rocks as sure as shooting."

"A man must trust his own judgment and conscience, and go ahead. Some day, if he has been true, the facts will come to light and justify him."

Coming back on the train, I picked up Ida Tarbell's "Life of Lincoln," and years of Civil War.

In the West was Fremont, brilliant impetuous, conceited—the popular idol. Without consultation or authority from the President, he issued in his own name an Emancipation Proclamation. It was immensely popular in the North. Newspapers and public speakers hailed it as a stroke of statesmanship, and its author as the man of vision who dared while the President weakly hesitated.

The country did not know the full facts: Lincoln did. He knew that such a proclamation, issued at that hour, would do far greater harm than good. It would not help to save the Union, and it might throw into the arms of the Confederacy those border States which had it in their power to win the war.

So he modified the proclamation.

When his order was made public, says Miss Tarbell, "a perfect storm of denunciation broke over the President. The whole North felt outraged. There was talk of impeaching Lincoln and replacing him with Fremont. Great newspapers criticized him, warning him to learn where he was treading. Influential men in all professions spoke bitterly of his action."

"How many times," wrote James Russell Lowell, "are we to save Kentucky and lose our self-respect?"

And all the time Lincoln, knowing better than any of his critics, having in his own mind his own plan for an Emancipation Proclamation held his peace, enduring the criticism, waiting for the proper hour.

Passages like that make me feel very reticent about exercising my divine right, as an American citizen, to denounce the Government.

So often, in our history, the events have proved that those who were criticized had all the facts, and the critics only part.

So often men have slain the prophets and then erected mausoleums to them afterwards.

Criticism is an intelligent service in a democracy: but it is a very specialized job; and I, for one, am willing that it should be somebody's else job.

Generally speaking, there is safety in this rule, and a lot of solid sense: "Don't criticize until you're sure you're right."

"Then don't." Usually by the time you're absolutely sure, it will be too late, anyway.

COTACO LITERARY CLUB

The Cotaco Literary Club claimed Mrs. C. D. Patterson as charming hostess Tuesday afternoon when it met at her home on Jackson street. The entire house was artistically decorated in fall flowers, yellow and white chrysanthemums with ferns predominating. The subject for the day, Brazil, was ably discussed by Mrs. W. H. Day, leader, and Mesdames J. D. Bush, C. D. Patterson and Theo Buchheit, assisting. The chairman of the Modern Health Crusade, Miss Sletta McWhorter, met with the society. Another guest of the club was Mrs. Edgar Fennell. After the program Mrs. Patterson and Mrs. Melvin Hutson served a dainty ice course.

With every cash purchase of five records at Kelley & Hauk's Thursday, Friday and Saturday, you will be given one free.—Advt. 26-tf.

TUESDAY AFTERNOON

BRIDGE

Yesterday afternoon the bridge club met with Mrs. H. N. Vaughn, on Jackson street.

Mrs. F. A. Gerig was the club guest for the afternoon. Mrs. Henry R. Davis, made high score and was awarded the club prize. At the conclusion of the game a dainty salad course was served.

EMERSON HAISLETT

A wedding of interest was that of Miss Mattie Haislett, to Mr. Frank Emerson, on last Saturday morning, October 23, 1920 in the presence of limited number of friends. The bride was very attractive in a traveling suit of green duretyn. The groom is a valued employee of the L. & N. shop. Mr. and Mrs. Emerson will be at home to their friends after November 1st on Sherman street.

AUCTION BOOK CLUB

Mrs. W. A. Bibb was hostess to the Auction Book Club Tuesday afternoon from 2:30 to five. Bridge was the feature of the afternoon, top score being made by Mrs. R. H. Woleott, who was presented a copy of one of the late books. After the game the hostess was assisted in serving tea and sandwiches by Mrs. Harbin Miller.

Miss Marjorie Miller and Mrs. James Johnson are in Birmingham today visiting the Misses Hoyt. Mrs. Johnson and Miss Miller will hear "Geraldine Farrar" while in Birmingham.

Mrs. Elizabeth Bratton has just arrived to take charge of Ory-Cohen's millinery department. Mrs. Bratton is an expert, experienced milliner and will be glad to meet the ladies of Albany and Decatur.

Mrs. Charles Apperson, of Madison, is the guest of Mrs. R. H. Woleott.

With every cash purchase of five records at Kelley & Hauk's Thursday, Friday and Saturday, you will be given one free.—Advt. 26-tf.

Mrs. Brad Bibb, of Moorsville, is visiting her daughter, Mrs. Zeno Bailey.

Mrs. R. G. Cottner and Mrs. T. A. Bowles have returned from Birmingham.

PERSONALS

Judge W. R. Simpson continues quite ill at his home at Curtis Wells.

A wire received here state Capt. John Cooper Adams, arrived in New York from Antwerp, and is expected home on furlough at an early date.

Dr. J. Y. Mamil has returned from New Orleans where he has been taking a special course in diseases of children.

Gun Club Scores

Owing to rain yesterday only a few of its members were in the gun club shoot at Wyatt's pasture. And because of a misunderstanding, three of the members arrived ahead of time and thus had two rounds as shown below. The first line shows the results of the first round of shots.

PUT FIGHTING QUALITIES IN YOUR BLOOD

If You Are Pale and Weak, Without Ambition, You Need a Tonic

TRY TAKING PEPTO-MANGAN
Rich, Red Blood Fights Off Disease and Keeps You Well and Enables You to Work With Pleasure

Serious sickness often comes when you least suspect. You may feel a little over-tired. You haven't been exposed to contagion, yet all of a sudden you are flat on your back and in for a siege of sickness.

Your blood did not have fighting qualities. It was weak and thin. Your vitality and powers of resistance were low.

When you overdo you use up energy. Your blood is driven to do more than it can. It becomes clogged with waste. The waste acts like poison. Disease germs get in your blood and dominate Don't let yourself get run down. Take that good tonic, Pepto-Mangan. It makes rich, red blood that will resist and rout out disease germs. Pepto-Mangan is widely and heartily endorsed by physicians. It is effective and easy to take. Comes in either liquid or tablet form. Both have the same effect.

Sold at any drug store. But be sure you get the genuine Pepto-Mangan—"Gude's." Ask for it by the name and be sure the full name, "Gude's Pepto-Mangan," is on the package.

Eruptions of the Skin Cause Torturous Itching

If you are afflicted with any form of skin disorder, you are well acquainted with the flaming, burning itching that these diseases produce.

Skin diseases are caused by an impurity or disorder in the blood, and there is no real and genuine relief within your reach until such impurities are removed.

S.S.S. has given great satisfaction in the treatment of these disorders, because it is such a thoroughly satisfactory blood purifier.

It cleanses the blood of all impurities, and thus counteracts the effects of the germs that attack the skin.

Begin taking S.S.S. today, and if you will write a complete history of your case, our medical adviser will give you expert advice without charge. Address Chief Medical Adviser, 158 Swift Laboratory, Atlanta, Ga.

BOLSHEVIKS IN WAR OVER SOURCE CAMPAIGN CONTRIBUTIONS

little row on between Germany's reds, light reds, pinks, whiskered bolsheviks, parlor bolsheviks and almost bolsheviks about the source of the campaign funds of their respective polo groups.

The pot called the kettle black when Freiheit accused the Rote Fahne (Red Flag) of being supported by contributions from Moscow. The Rote Fahne didn't both to deny the charges they simply started in to prove that Freiheit had long been deriving her revenue from the same source.

"We make so secret of the fact that our Russian brothers have supported us financially," replied the Rote Fahne. "But we are also ready to prove and give the names of the prominent leaders of the independents who today are fighting against by money taken from the State Moscow, and state the high sums Treasury."

which they have accepted from Russia."

Freiheit then declared it preferred to drop the matter. Whereupon Vor-Waertz, the has-been organ of the Reds, made up a neat little verse advising the Freiheit and Rote Fahne: "An offer and a threat at the same time: Speak no more of my subsidy and never again will I mention thine."

"Don't be so pert!" retorts the Rote Fahne. "Don't forget that Vor-Waertz's party paid for its campaign propaganda from the funds of the Home Service budget, which is Government money. The old Social Democratic party is the first and only of the labor parties which paid for its agitation, not with party funds, but

OUR own opinion is that annual repair costs on the Hupmobile are less than those of any other car in the world.

It is also one of the very few cars—out of several hundred—so noted for fine performance and low-cost over a long life that it always commands a high price when re-sold.

These are the qualities which make the Hupmobile worth what it costs, and without which no motor car is ever worth what it costs.

TO THE VOTERS: "Let's Get Morgan County Out of the Mud"

VOTE FOR THE $440,000.00 ROAD BOND ISSUE NOV. 2

NO RAISE OF TAXES ON ACCOUNT OF THIS BOND ISSUE

To the Women

Since the women of the United States have the privilege of voting, we appeal to the women of Morgan County to erect a monument to their victory by casting their first ballot in favor of the Good Roads Bond Issue.

Let's get the greatest section in the United States Out of the Mud—your vote and influence will do it—See that your husband and sons, as well as your daughters, vote for Good Roads.

A Bond Issue of $440,000.00 to Be Voted on November 2, 1920

Not over $50,000.00 to be used to reconstruct old system of pike roads, balance of $390,000.00 to be prorated to number of miles in the construction or building of new pike roads as follows:

"A" Extend the Falkville west pike from McKendree Church west to the Danville and Basham's Gap road, thence south along said last named road toward Basham's Gap. The total distance of this extension is estimated to be six miles.

"B" The Decatur and Danville Road, estimated to be seventeen miles.

"C" Extend the Falkville east pike by way of Gandy's Cove through Lawrence Cove Beat to intersect the Florette and Ryan's Cross Roads, at or near the old Tingle place, estimated to be eleven miles.

"D" From Eva north to intersect the road last above named, estimated to be one and one-half miles.

"E" Extend the Decatur and Somerville pike in a south easterly direction to Somerville, estimated to be five miles.

"F" From Somerville in a southerly direction to intersect the Hartselle and Valhermosa Road, estimated to be one and one-half miles.

"G" From Florette to Ryan's Cross Roads, estimated to be 10 miles.

"H" Extend the Hartselle and Valhermosa pike in a north easterly direction from the present eastern terminus of that pike to Valhermosa Springs, estimated to be eight miles.

"I" From Flint in a south westerly direction to intersect the Decatur and Danville Road, estimated to be two miles.

ABSOLUTELY NO MONEY TO BE TAKEN AWAY OR USED FOR CONSTRUCTION EXCEPT AS STATED.

PLAN OF UPKEEP

Out of revenues collected from taxes already levied, County will receive $50,000.00 per annum. Of this sum $35,000.00 to be used for payment of interest on old issue of bonds and the new issue proposed, leaving a balance of $15,000.00 to be spent for repairs each year.

GO TO THE POLLS ON NOVEMBER 2, AND CAST YOUR VOTE IN FAVOR OF THE BOND ISSUE

Albany, Ala., Oct. 27, 1920

To the Voters of Morgan County:

Realizing the fact that the roads of Morgan County are in a most deplorable condition, and realizing that the plan as explained, is the only way in which we can hope to get relief, we heartily endorse the proposed plan, and do hereby pledge the voters of the county that the officers, directors and members of the Albany Chamber of Commerce will stand behind the plan in seeing that it is carried out, as submitted, and that no money shall be spent in any other way than as stated in the call.

Very truly yours,

ALBANY CHAMBER OF COMMERCE

F. F. Tidwell, Pres.

C. P. McDaniel, Secy.-Mgr.

DIRECTORS:

John P. Matlock
C. D. Patterson
W. M. Chenault

H. M. Priest
Joe Wilder
W. W. Rahm

Mr. F. F. Tidwell,

President Albany Chamber of Commerce.

Dear Sir:—

Reply to your inquiry relative to the proposed Road Bond Issue and as to whether or not the voting of this issue will increase the tax rate of the county, I beg to say that the call for this election shows on its face how the money is to be expended and the roads on which the same is to be expended if voted. The ballots for the election follow the call and contain the same provisions as the call.

This contemplates first, the survey of the roads and an ascertainment of the exact mileage of each of the roads or sections of road to be improved.

Then after setting apart $50,000 to repair the present roads, the balance is to be apportioned to each of the several roads or sections of road on the basis of the mileage of each of said roads or sections of road, and no part of the money thus set apart to any of the roads can be diverted to any other road.

To illustrate, after deducting the $50,000.00 there will be $390,000.00 left to be divided or apportioned to the several roads mentioned to be improved. If a survey of these roads disclosed that that there are 55 miles in all, then $390,000 divided by the 55 miles will give $7090.00 per mile to each mile of said roads. Then if the road west from Falkville is six miles long, six times $7090.00 will be the sum set apart for that road, and when thus set apart no part of this sum can be taken for any other road.

There will be no increase in the tax rate because of this Bond issue. The tax rate is as high now as it can be under the law.

Yours truly,

L. P. TROUP, Probate Judge
(See Call on Page 1, Section Two)

To the Men

"Education is Agriculture's Greatest Ally."

One obligation in life which every man must fulfil is to educate his children—If you are interested in the education of your children, vote for this Bond Issue. Then we can build more and better school buildings in which to educate the children of Morgan County—and at the same time, build up the greatest agricultural section in the world.

The future generation is entitled to Good Roads. Are you willing to help get them? Then vote for Good Roads on November 2.

CASH PRIZES TO BE GIVEN AWAY BY THE LOCAL MERCHANTS

Beginning Monday, November 1 and continuing until November 6, the merchants and business men of Albany will give away $420 in cash. These prizes are given in connection with the Booster trip, all on these trips cards were given away entitling the holder to $10 in cash provided they hold a lucky number.

A number will be posted in every store or place of business offering a prize and the card holders will go to the various stores, and when they find the place with their number they are requested to present the card and receive the $10 in cash.

These prizes are given away by the merchants and business men of Albany as an appreciation of the patronage of the citizens of rural districts, and it is hoped that they will take advantage of this opportunity to receive cash instead of merchandise as has been the custom heretofore.

The Booster trip this year was far the greatest in the history of Albany, which is attributed largely to the fact that it was carried out this year under the auspices of the Albany Chamber of Commerce.

and, also, others as new homes, the housing proposition being one of vital interest in Athens. Mr. Milton Seamon is erecting a home across the street from the old Houston home, to the South. Mr. Price Hendrick's is erecting quite a commodious home on Jefferson Street. Mr. Robert Bridgforth has just moved in his new home on East Pryor Street.

The M. E. Church made quite a liberal donation through its mission society, to the call from Poland.

Four Hundred and Eighty Seven High Grade All Wool Suits For Sale

These Suits are for young men, middle aged men and older men, they are—

Hart Schaffner & Marx, Kuppenheimer and Styleplus

Make, America's three greatest known brands of clothing.

These FOUR HUNDRED and EIGHTY SEVEN SUITS represent approximately

$25,000.00 Worth of Clothing

to say nothing of our Overcoats, extra Pants and Boy's Clothing. We have decided this is too much clothing for us to carry and are going to sell these Hart Schaffner & Marx, Kuppenheimer and Styleplus Suits cheaper than they can be sold to you next spring.

You ask why we are going to do this. It is simply to keep business moving. Some of the biggest and best manufacturers have fixed their prices for spring, and advise us that they will be able to give us woolen clothing at from 10% to 15% cheaper than for last spring, while Palm-Beach and Mo-hairs will be as high, if not a little higher, than last spring.

If you are in need of a Suit, come to our store, pick out the Suit that you want, one that you can rely upon, one that we can recommend to you and we will help you out with the price, that terrible thing that has been worrying the minds of so many people.

BETTER THAN WHISKEY FOR COLDS AND FLU

New Elixir, Called Aspironal, Medicated With Latest Scientific Remedies, Used and Endorsed by European and American Army Surgeons to Cut Short a Cold and Prevent Complications.

Every Druggist in U. S. Instructed to Refund Price While You Wait a Counter, If Relief Does Not Come Within Two Minutes.

Delightful Taste. Immediate Relief, Quick Warm Up.

The sensation of the year in the drug trade is Aspironal, the two-minute cold and cough relief, authoritatively guaranteed by the laboratories; tested, approved and most enthusiastically endorsed by the highest authorities, and proclaimed by the common people as ten times as quick and effective as whiskey, beer and rye, or any other cold and cough remedy they have ever tried.

All drug stores are now supplied with the wonderful new elixir so you have to do to get rid of that cold is to step into the nearest drug store and hand the clerk half a dollar for a bottle of Aspironal and tell him to serve you two teaspoonsfuls with four teaspoonsfuls of water in a glass. With your watch in your hand, take the drink at one swallow and call for your money back in two minutes. If you cannot feel your cold fading away like a dream within the time limit. Don't be bashful, for all druggists invite you and expect you to try it. Everybody's doing it.

When your cold or cough is relieved, take the remainder of the bottle home to your wife and babies, for Aspironal is by far the safest and most effective, the easiest to take and the most agreeable cold and cough remedy for infants and children. (Adv.)

With every cash purchase of records at Kelley & Hauk's Friday and Saturday, you will be given one free. (Advt. 27-14).

Are you bilious?

Liver clogged with waste, no doubt. Take a bottle of Drexco—the simple, safe herbal medicine. It will relieve you.

PRODUCTION OF CATTLE IN WEST

Investigations Conducted in Nebraska Show Wide Variation in Figures.

FEEDING FEROCIOUS VENTURE

Drying Right and Selling Right Are Controlling Factors—Some Farmers Carried Animals Through With Profit.

According to cost of production investigations conducted by the United States department of agriculture in co-operation with the University of Nebraska in parts of Nebraska during the past two years, the average cost of corn-fed cattle laid down at market was $14.91 per hundredweight for 2,297 head fed for the winter of 1918-19, $18.91 for 3,041 cattle in a survey study during the winter of 1919-20 and an average of $13.24 for an additional 703 cattle upon which detailed cost figures were secured during the same winter. The costs upon some drives were found to vary widely from these average figures with the major portion going in market the first winter (1918-19) carrying an expense bill of $13 to $18 a hundredweight, while in 1919-20 the costs of most of the cattle were between $11 and $17. The factors thus far brought out by the investigation would indicate that during the past two years, in the district covered by the survey, cattle feeding was a precarious venture, more likely to be unprofitable than not. There was an average loss per head of $3.17 in the cattle for which records were obtained in 1918-19, and of $10.09 and $14.57 on two groups for which records were obtained in 1919-20.

These figures are the results of the first two years' work of a five-year study of fattening cattle, which is being conducted in Nebraska by the office of farm management and farm economy

ALLIANCE WITH ENGLAND NOW IS DREAM OF THE GERMANS

They Are Already Talking It, and One of the First Tasks of the Alliance, It is Said, Will Be to Punish America for Its Impertinence in Interfering in the War—Fear Spread of Bolshevism This Winter.

By Earle C. Reeves,
International News Service Staff
Correspondent

LONDON, Oct. 27.—"The German's congenitally and proverbially insensible to the public feeling of other countries. Already they are talking naively of a new triple alliance in which Germany and England shall be the predominant partners, and one of the first tasks of this alliance will be (incredible though it may sound) to punish America for her impertinence in interfering in a war which was entirely our own affairs."

Such is the most striking assertion of "A Traveller" who has recently spent much time in Germany and who writes "Some German Impressions" in the Spectator, by way of correcting British misconceptions of the state of Germany today.

The writer finds that to speak English is one's best passport in Germany, but that it is not always safe to speak French. This, he believes, is partly due to the fact that prisoners returning from English camps have done justice to the treatment they received in English camps, and, he adds, "in Cologne a girl's honor is safe."

"I cannot say that I found much remorse in Germany," he writes. "The attitude toward the war is a la Tallyrand. It was a blunder rather than a crime. They cannot altogether understand that there should be any telling against them in England."

As for his outline of conditions: "Germany is not a cheerful country at present. Seventy per cent of the factory chimneys are lifeless. Poverty is everywhere. The people seem listless and underfed. Officers' widows have in some cases taken to the streets to earn money for their children. And Berlin is haunted. Behind every man's chair stands the spectre of Bolshevism. There will be trouble in the Winter, is the burden of every man's thought, and Winter is very near."

"Germany at present is no more fit to govern herself than was Egypt in the eighties. She is not ripe for popular government. As a result she is an easy prey to communism on the one hand and for autocracy on the other."

"A popular government, strong enough to do what is right because it is right is a thing the German cannot conceive. And so they are drifting rapidly toward the whirlpool.

England The Remedy.

"What is the remedy? Ask the woman. Ask the business man. Ask even the monarchist, whose lips are still curled with the contempt born of unrestrained arrogance, and who makes no effort to conceal the fact that he is looking for a 'return with the violets.' They all answer—England. England must bring coal and food. England must see that we have raw materials. That England can do it they never doubt. In fact, they feel aggrieved that she has not already achieved it. To point out that we have allies to consider is useless. For our allies and America they have nothing but contempt. There are only two countries in the world—Germany and England."

The writer concludes that the political sagacity of the German has not advanced beyond what it was in 1914. But he ends his observation with this:

"There will be trouble in the Winter. With the first cold snap the workers will rise, and the Bolshevism which we flattered ourselves was pushed beyond the Bug will be breaking the bounds of the Rhine."

"The issue is clear. Help Germany through the Winter—bring food and coal within the reach of all—set busy the silent factories, or—prepare for war."

STARVING CHILDREN

By Dr. F. Dorshimer, State Board of Health

Barney Boggs, the farmer, came into the County Health Office with blood in his eye.

"Where's that health officer?" he demanded of the office girl.

"He'll be back in a minute," she replied. "Will you not sit down?" She smiled so sweetly that Barney just could not help cooling off a bit, and when the health officer came and greeted him, he answered civilly, for Barney, like most farmers, is a real gentleman.

"What can I do for you, Barney?" asked the health officer.

"Look at this," demanded the farmer, thrusting a card into the health officer's hand.

"What about it? It says that Mary Barnes is undernourished. She is my niece. Undernourished means she is being starved, doesn't it?"

"Yes, in a way."

"Well, that is not true," Barney pounded on a desk for emphasis. "She eats all she wants three times a day and often some between meals beside."

"How many mules have you Barney?"

"Six. But what has that to do with it?"

"Never mind for a minute. What do you feed them?"

"Oats and hay mostly when they are working. Sometimes some corn. When they are not being worked much I give them less oats and sometimes use instead, some of this prepared food which has a lot of molasses in it."

"Why do you not give them the molasses food when they are working?"

"It has the strength in it and they would not be able to work hard without some oats."

"Well, then, why don't you feed them nothing but oats? Why feed hay? It has no strength in it, either, has it?"

"No, hay has little strength in it, but a mule would soon founder if it got all the oats it wanted. And if it got only the proper amount of oats and no hay with it, it would get sick. Any animal needs some long food."

"Now suppose," went on the health officer, "you give your mule all the molasses feed, for example, that it could eat and nothing else. It would, as you say, get weak and unable to work. Then would it not be undernourished, or starving even though it ate all it wanted."

"Yes, I suppose so," admitted Barney.

"Look, now, do you think it is any easier to properly feed a growing girl or boy or an adult human, for that matter, than it is a mule?"

"Doggone!" ejaculated Barney. "So that's what you're working at. You are the derndest man I ever did see. I guess you have me again. It probably is harder to feed a child properly than it is to feed a mule."

"But wait a minute," continued Barney, with an air of having an unbeatable argument. "Why were we given appetites for certain kinds of food if not to show us what we should eat. Looks like the Almighty knows what is good for us and made us want those things."

"Do you like snails? Would you eat monkey?"

"No sir, neither one."

"Do you like garlic?"

"Not me."

"Yet there are people who like all these things. Their bodies are built the same way as ours. Why do they like such things when we do not? Why do some of us like olives immensely while others will not touch them?"

"Well, now, I don't like olives myself but my women folks do. I think you have to eat such things long enough to learn to like them."

"That is true. And it is also true of most of the other things we eat. Whatever we are given to eat as children we learn to like whether we are good for us or not."

"Is that so? I never knew that. I guess you may be right about Mary, then, for she won't eat much except corn bread, syrup and fat pork. But I always thought that was the very best food."

"It is good food. So is molasses mule feed. But neither, by itself, is a complete food. Other things are needed to prevent undernourishment, starvation as you call it."

"I see, now, what you mean. Mary needs to eat more kinds of food."

"That's it. She needs milk and eggs, fresh, meat, greens, and other fresh vegetables, fruits, cereals like rolled oats as well as grits. As you say, she needs more kinds of food rather than a greater quantity and especially those I mention."

"She'll get them," promised.

Clean Teeth New Way Without Tooth Paste

Wonderful New Liquid Dentifrice
Makes Harmful Gritty Paste Unnecessary.

For many years prominent dentists have been preaching the danger and uselessness of coarse, chalky tooth pastes. Specialists have long known that abrasive dentifrices not only do not thoroughly cleanse teeth, but that their filing action actually expedites decay.

Steroline attacks mouth disorders at their source. It does not rely on chalk and grit to scrape the teeth clean. Instead of irritating and tearing, its effect on the gums is soothing and pleasant. And it does clean the teeth and keeps them white and strong. You can say good-by to cavities, discolored teeth, septic throat and bad breath when you buy your first bottle of Steroline.

Writing in the Dental Cosmos, Dr. F. D. Miller tells us that, "With some of the much extolled preparations on the market, it is quite easy by applying the brush to cut the tooth half through exposing the pulp inside of two hours!"

People with tender gums have long been sufferers from these irritating pastes. And many have found that they actually do more harm than good.

Now, however, it is no longer necessary to suffer from these harmful preparations. A wonderful new liquid dentifrice, the result of years of scientific research and experiment has recently been placed on the market. This new preparation is will be cheerfully refunded.
